

SPONSORSHIP BENEFITS

Those conservation friendly organizations that support the conference will maintain a strong presence during the event. Contributor involvement and recognition is a high priority for ACI and KDFWR and sponsor generosity will be recognized in many ways including the conference program, signage at your selected event, complimentary exhibit space and complimentary tickets for various functions. In addition, sponsor names will appear in KDFWR statewide news releases if desired by the supporter. Sponsorship benefits are as follows:

GOLD SPONSOR $ 5,000 AND UP

Conference Activities

Complimentary conference registration for two, valid for the duration of the conference, including all special evening functions

Conference Booth

Reach out to conference participants with an attractive, informative booth where you can display your products, services, and literature.

Media Recognition

Spread the news about your efforts and support of wildlife conservation through KDFWR premier publication, Kentucky Affield magazine. Our magazine is issued quarterly and reaches thousands of people.

Our Appreciation

Your generous contribution will be prominently featured on signs located throughout the conference location. Published recognition in the official conference program will highlight your dedication to wildlife conservation.

SILVER SPONSOR $ 3,000 - $4,999

Conference Activities

Complimentary conference registration for one, valid for the duration of the conference, including all special evening functions.

Conference Booth

Reach out to conference participants with an attractive, informative booth where you can display your products, services, and literature.

Media Recognition

Spread the news about your efforts and support of wildlife conservation through KDFWR premier publication, Kentucky Affield magazine. Our magazine is issued quarterly and reaches thousands of people.

Our Appreciation

Your generous contribution will be prominently featured on signs located throughout the conference location. Published recognition in the official conference program will highlight your dedication to wildlife conservation.

BRONZE SPONSOR $ 1,000 - $ 2,999

Conference Activities

Two complimentary conference registrations for a day of your choice to attend workshops and sessions, including evening events scheduled for that day.

Conference Booth

Reach out to conference participants with an attractive, informative booth where you can display your products, services, and literature

Media Recognition

Spread the news about your efforts and support of wildlife conservation through KDFWR premier publication, Kentucky Affield magazine. Our magazine is issued quarterly and reaches thousands of people.

Our Appreciation

Your generous contribution will be prominently featured on signs located throughout the conference location. Published recognition in the official conference program will highlight your dedication to wildlife conservation.

Friends of ACI $100 - $ 999

Recognition in the conference program and signage.