JUDGE # 1

Karen Wintress is a member of the New Jersey Commission of Environmental Education and is the President of the Alliance for New Jersey Environmental Education (ANJEE), a statewide network of environmental educators. She is a risk manager at American Re-Insurance Company in Princeton, New Jersey. While she has spent most of her career in a variety of corporate research, planning and marketing assignments, her passion continues to be the environment and education.

JUDGE # 2

Frank Gallagher has been with the New Jersey Division of Parks and Forestry since 1984. As the administrator of Interpretive and Educational Services, he is responsible for developing and helping to implement the division's statewide interpretive plan. He is an active member and former president of the Alliance for New Jersey's Environmental Educators and is a recent recipient of the USDA Forest Service's Conservation Education Award. In addition to his post-graduate work at Rutgers, he currently teaches an environmental issues seminar.

JUDGE # 3

Tanya Oznowich is an environmental education (EE) specialist and supervisor for the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection (DEP). She assists with the development, promotion and monitoring of DEP outreach and education priority projects, and participates in ongoing EE partnership efforts. She provides DEP representation on, and support work for, the New Jersey Commission on Environmental Education and is president-elect of the state's EE organization.
