Dear Ms. Wisniewski:

The New Mexico Department of Game and Fish is pleased to host the 2020 Annual Conference of the Association for Conservation Information. The conference will be held on the Downtown Santa Fe Plaza in historic Santa Fe, New Mexico.

Founded in 1610 by colonial governor Don Pedro de Peralta, the plaza is the epicenter of over four hundred years of New Mexico history. It is the oldest European established capital city in the United States and recognized as a National Historic Landmark. The plaza is home to the country's oldest church, the San Miguel Mission, and the oldest public building, the Palace of the Governors. The plaza was a witness to two major liberation movements – the Pueblo Revolt of 1680 and the War for Mexican Independence that ended in 1821.

Today, the plaza still embraces its heritage as the heart of New Mexico's community, commerce and politics. It inspires creativity through its architecture, art, music, culture and cuisine.

We invite you to join us July 19-22, 2020 in Santa Fe at the Drury Plaza Hotel, 828 Paseo De Peralta, Santa Fe, NM 87501. The theme of the conference will be revealed later today and is sure to spark meaningful discussions about the role communication plays in securing the future of wildlife conservation.

We look forward to seeing you in Santa Fe and wish everyone safe travels.

¡Bienvenidos!

Michael B. Sloane
